

EDUARDO ZÁRATE, M.D.

Meet Doctor Eduardo Zárate.

Here are his vitals: He's Colombian Medical Board certified, specializing in Anesthesiology with expertise in several areas: cardiac surgical procedures, ambulatory, laparoscopic and bariatric surgery. Doctor Zárate is a highly experienced doctor, with 33 years of practice (23 of them dedicated to the exercise of anesthesiology). He is affiliated with a top rated Clinic in Bogotá, Colombia, (Reina Sofía Clinic [Clínica Reina Sofía] of the International SANITAS Organization). Graduated from Pontificia Universidad Javeriana at Bogotá. He completed his specialization at Hospital Universitario de San Ignacio in 1994 and culminated a 2 year-fellowship in Clinical Research Anesthesia for Ambulatory Surgery at Southwester Medical Center at Dallas, TX.

Doctor Zárate has been Assistant Profesor of Anesthesiology Post-graduate Program at Pontificia Universidad Javeriana and currently is Co-director of the Anesthesia Residency Program of Fundacion Universitaria SANITAS.

He is a published autor, having articles in peer reviewed journals. Currently is the head of the Research Group of the Anesthesiology Department at COLSANITAS Clinics with lines of research based on post-operative outcomes.

Dr. Zarate is the Anesthesia leader of the ERAS (Enhanced Recovery After Surgery) Program at the Reina Sofia Clinic, being one of the three institutions in South America certified as a Center of Excellence by the ERAS Society.